VII. ADVERTISEMENTS 89

"There's nothing worth the wear of winning
But laughter and the love of friends."

—Belloc

Because of her happy disposition, her unselfish understanding, and her genuine goodness, we the members of the 1954-'55 Lexicon Staff, with love and admiration do dedicate this edition to MRS. FLAYREE HILL THOMPSON.

"She Was a Phantom of Delight"

"She was a phantom of delight
When first she gleamed upon my sight;
A lovely apparition sent
To be a moment's ornament;
Her eyes as stars of twilight fair:
Like twilight's too, her dusky hair;
But all things else about her drawn
From May-time and the cheerful dawn;
. . . . . .
I saw her upon nearer view
A spirit, yet a woman too!"

—Longfellow.

We dedicate this page in admiration of BETTY JO RING, Miss North Carolina of 1955.

Because of their capable guidance, ceaseless understanding, and profound devotion to the school, Mr. L. E. Andrews, superintendent of the city schools, and Mr. C. E. Wike, principal, have played a big part in making Lexington Senior High School become one of the most outstanding schools in the state.

Mrs. Harold Frady, efficient school secretary, has many responsibilities which she takes care of with accuracy and promptness.

Our Overseers

Year after year we find it necessary to increase our praise for our school administration because of their worth and ability. Not only do they work to make the school a better one, but they also consider it their responsibility to strengthen the character of each individual student. Their main objectives are to secure the advantages of education for each student and to manage and plan the school's curriculum in the best possible manner. Because the school runs so smoothly, it is hard for us to comprehend the time and effort that is spent to reach these objectives; but an example lies in the fact that their school year never ends. Their work continues into the summer since there are so many complicated details in completing a successful plan for our school program. We express, with profound gratitude and appreciation, our thanks for their devotion in helping us to be good citizens of Lexington and well educated young people.

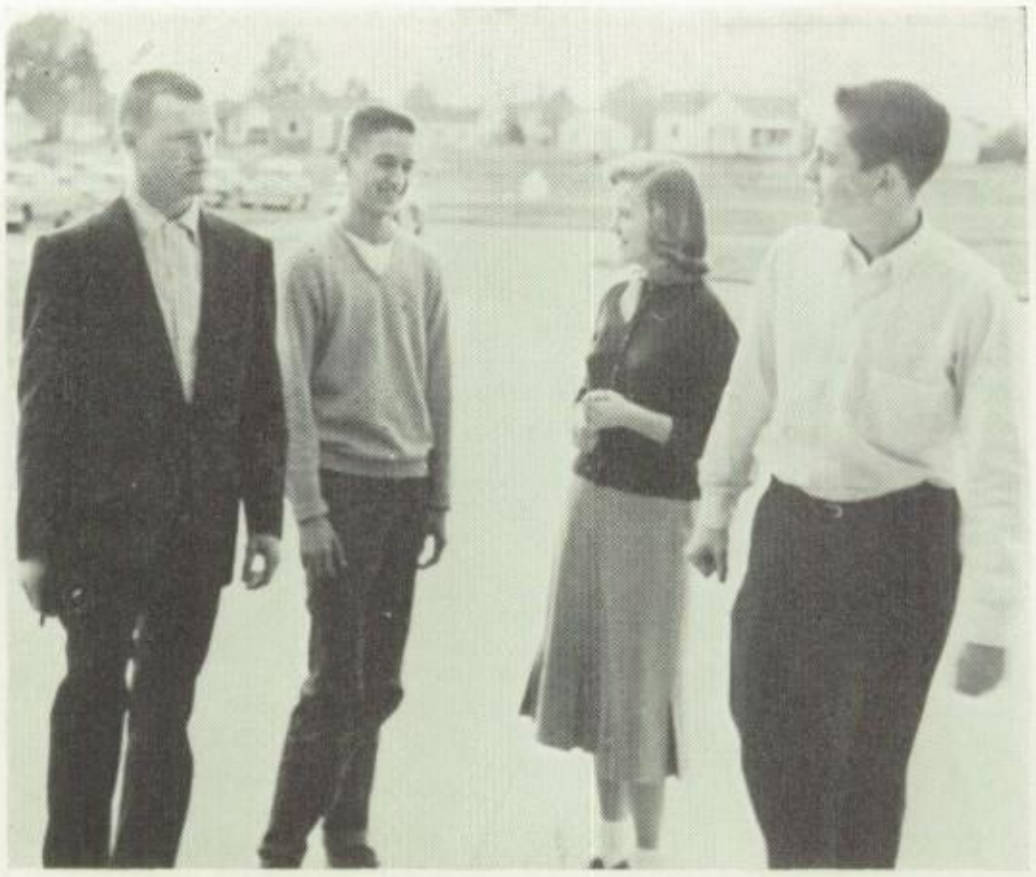
Activities



The friendliness of L.S.H.S. is portrayed through the smiles of our leaders: President, Robert Fitzgerald; Secretary, Johnny Walser; Treasurer, Angella Foster; and Vice-President, Tommy Green.

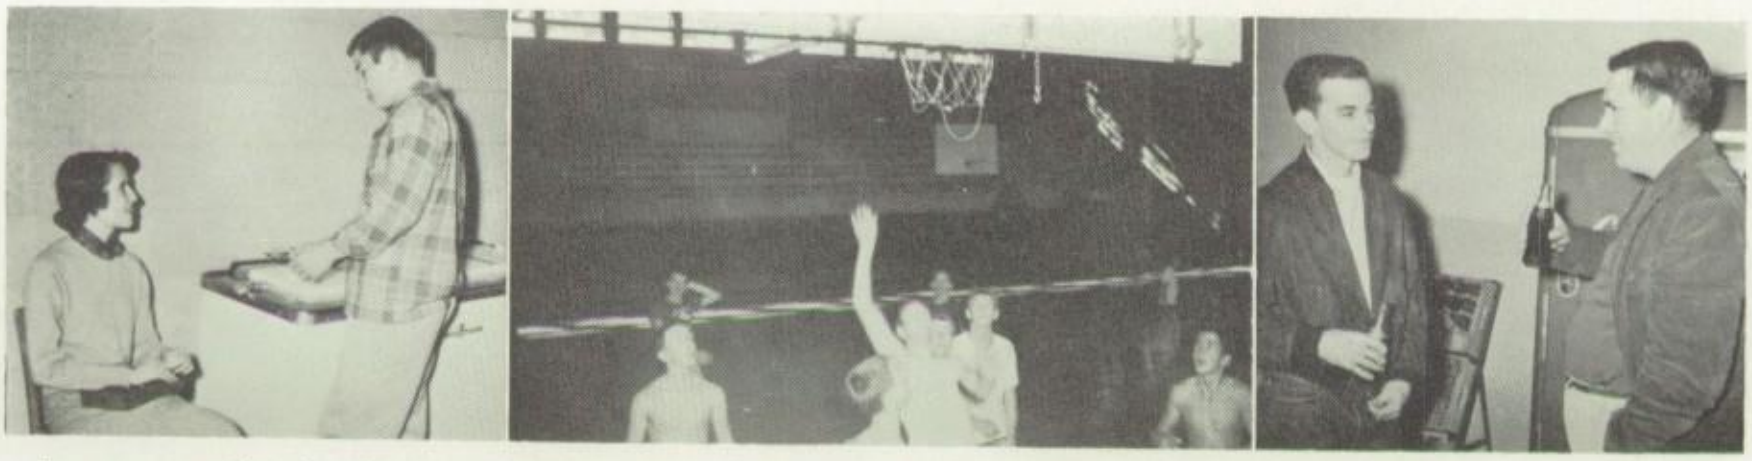
"This government shall not perish"

Our Student Government is the wheel to our school activities. This year we have had both an active Student Council and the House of Representatives.

The Council is composed of the school executive officers and members of the four classes. President Robert Fitzgerald brings all school problems to the Council for consideration. A school World Peace float was entered in the Veterans' Day Parade in November and won first place. Special committees of the council this year planned Parent's Night at our last home football game, indoor recreation during the winter season, bulletin board designs, the beautification of classrooms, and an energetic campaign for the development of the Student Body's yard plot. Of course, we all stopped by for cokes at the Coca-Cola machine, and chatted with Mr. Clark about us crazy kids!

The House is called to order by Veep Tommy Green, and the home-room representatives discuss the latest news and views of the individual classes. This gives the opportunity for all to have a voice in the school government.

The desire of the Government is to help you, the students of L.S.H.S. feel that you are the greatest part of our school spirit.



Ice cream after lunch is a favorite for everyone. Craven Young buys dessert from Betty Brinkley, storekeeper. Middle: Indoor recreation time . . . basketball. Right: Harold Cannady and Mr. Clark have cokes between classes . . . the pause that refreshes.

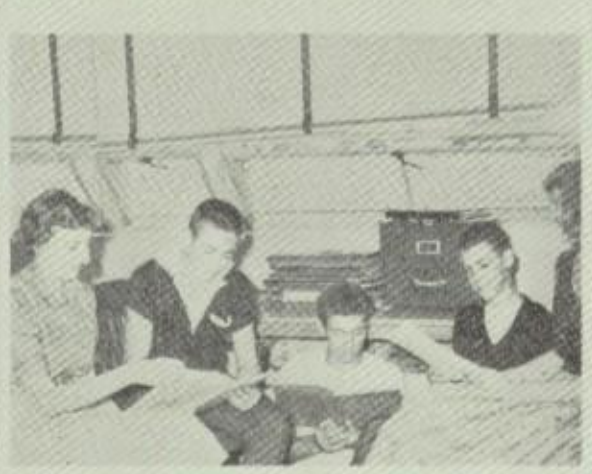
Always on the job, we find the LEXHIPEP business manager, Eddie Coble, and his assistant, Tommy Green, just leaving to secure another ad (we hope).



"They're going to be hard to beat," declare Marcia Bell, Charles Helmstetler, Raymond Byrd, Levon Weaver, and Caroline Swaim, business managers of the LEXICON, as they look through past editions of the L. S. H. S. annuals.

Town Criers

Hear ye! Hear ye! There is news galore if ye but listen to the words of these news bearers. Their pens and pencils race madly to bring you our school publications, the Lexhipep and the Lexicon. The Quill and Scroll is a national honorary organization for outstanding journalistic students.

The Quill and Scroll-Faculty basketball games are full of fun and laughs for all. Other projects encourage individual and group interests in creative writing.

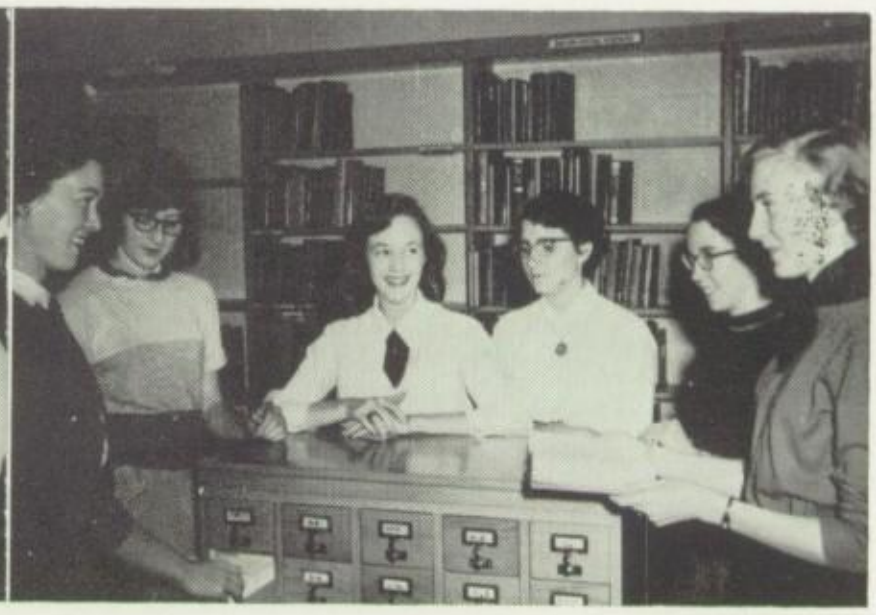
Folklore



Busy Bees of the Library Club are Patricia Frye, Alice McCrary, Secretary-Treasurer; Betty Billings, President; Jane Swicegood, Vice-President; and Dolores Leonard looking over new books that are offered to all students. Right: But wait, that isn't the end. Now Miss Shirley Brooks explains the card catalogue to Evelyn Cross, Maxine Payne, Barbara Money, Linda Lou Weaver, and Margaret Byrd. Don't forget the combination, girls!

Today many of us shun the idea of listening to classical music or reading a deep novel. You would be surprised how thrilling a Shakespearian drama can be. Most writers through the ages have written to appeal to the masses of people. Chauncer's Canterbury Tales are spiced with a bit of every type of life. Whether sweet and fragrant or extremely risque, you are sure to find joy in reading. It is visiting another world in your own favorite chair. You might even try the music for background. This summer challenge yourself to indulge in the finer arts. It is well worth your while.

Aristocrats

The Halloween Dance is always gay with Square Dancing and lots of good eats.

It is through higher standards of living that we may all become honor students.

Charity for All

"Everybody pitch in and let's go to work!" But it isn't all work when you have a crowd of folks that are so versatile that they don't want to miss anything that might be exciting. We work, play, have fun, tell funny jokes, and laugh at Beta Club meetings.

There are cake bakers, sellers, and the cream of the crop in this club.

Capable leaders of this years Hi-Y are Jack Coppley, Secretary; Keith Stamey, President; Bobby Pope, Vice-President; and Mickey Byrd, Treasurer.

Gents

The fellows are up to their old tricks. We wouldn't miss initiation time for anything in the world. The boys looked especially good as ladies during those long lived days.

The YMCA plus good suppers made for excellent meetings. The big task of the year was selling Homecoming programs for the game.

These boys never quit and all serve through Christian living by the Hi-Y club principles.

That wind blown look goes to Treasurer, June Leonard; Secretary, JoAnn Wilson; President, Sarah Swicegood; and Vice-President, Sue Mull.

Ladies

Newly elected members of the Tri-Hi-Y were objects of envy on the day they were pinned. But envy soon changed to laughter when they appeared on the initiation days dressed in pajamas and shorts, and as mountaineers.

Among their many activities were the decorating of the Queen's float, supper meetings, church services, Christmas gifts for children and the beautiful coronation of the King and Queen of L.S.H.S.

The Tri-Hi-Y girls uphold high standards of Christian character for all to see.

Apprentices

One of our newest clubs this year is the D. O. club. It is composed of those people who are preparing themselves for the future through the Diversified Occupations course offered in this school. They have conducted a variety of interesting discussions and also presented an assembly program.

Officers of the club are as follows: Barbara Lanier, President; Charles Shoaf, Vice-President; Carolyn Hames, Secretary; Leonard Beck, Treasurer; Mr. Hardee, Adviser.

We're not through! Top row: Carl Lackey, Weaver; Bobby Biesecker, Meat Cutter; Clegg Yarborough, Meat Cutter. Bottom row: Don Stovall, Diesel Mechanic; Joe Langley, Body Repair; Buddy Taylor, Auto Mechanic.

Bullshooting as usual (?) are Coppley, Secretary; Coble, President; Tim, Treasurer; Skip, Vice-President.

Esquires

The most industrious fellows in town are these whom you can always see trying to give a good sales talk. Not many of us could do without the invaluable phone directories which the clubbers have been selling this year.

You just don't see too many cars in town that don't have yellow jackets stickers on them . . . compliments of Keymen for 10c.

Popcorn and your car parked for you when you go to the Davidson County Fair. Another job! Never underestimate the power of the esquires.

Dixieland

With heavy eyes and great expectation, the sleepy, but excited, band members boarded a bus for the glorious trip to Atlantic City and the Miss America Pageant.

But, all good things must end, and they came home with wonderful memories and started right to work. There was much to be done—football games, pep rallies, concerts, and marching in many parades. A new "orchestra," The Saints, was born from this excellent band and has won great fame this year. And as a conclusion, they attended the District Contest.

So with their most successful year behind them, the band members now halt for three months of fun and relax from drills and rehearsals.

Songsters

The fact that the Junior Chorus came into being several weeks after school opened was no setback to these eager students. With twenty-two well-balanced voices and the capable direction of Mrs. Witherspoon, the chorus developed into a very favorable group of singers.

The officers of the Junior Chorus, Tommy Sink, President; Janet Crotts, Vice-President; Jimmie Jean Ingram, Secretary; Susie Smith, Treasurer, enjoy looking at the large variety of mus c in the library of melodies.

Serenaders

Ah! Listen! What beautiful music; but where is it coming from? Why of course, that's the third period glee club practicing for the assembly program.

The glee club, consisting entirely of girls, is one of the most enthusiastic of all three; and as a result it has produced a very good chorus. They have given many interesting programs at school and on special occasions.

Making music is a favorite pastime for the officers of the Girl's Chorus who are: Nancy Covington, President; Betty Hege, Vice-President; Alice Harvey, Secretary; Sylvia Gallimore, Treasurer; Nancy Williams, Pianist; Carmellene Furr, Sue Wallace and Louise Story, Librarian.

It doesn't take a Mississippi steamboat to prove these true blooded Southland leaders coming from the music room are: Nancy Campbell, Pianist; Meade Freeman, Librarian; Caroline Swaim, Treasurer; Betty Ann Brown, President; Don Truell, Vice-President; and Pud Sechrest, Secretary.

With a select group of mixed voices, the mixed chorus launched into one of their most successful years.

Many programs were given for school and civic organizations, and they made a very favorable showing in the Christmas Candlelight Service at a local church. After much hard work, Mrs. Witherspoon entered her pride and joy in the State Music Contest.

In the spring several of the members represented Lexington in the State Choral Festival.

Football began in the heat of August. Approximately eighty boys appeared from all over the city of Lexington for the first practices—all eager and willing to work. It became a second life to them. They began to eat, sleep, and live football. Expectations of the new head coach, Presnell Mull, were strong among the boys. Coaches Presnell Mull, Carroll Bowen, and V. G. Price, Jr., began their practices by dividing the boys into groups according to their position. Each division worked in fifteen-minute time periods. You could hear the coaches barking, but their eyes were beaming with pride. They knew that they had the material!

After weeks of hard football grind, both physically and mentally, the team roared into action under the split "T." This first sight of action took place in the Philpott Memorial Stadium, in Lexington. Even with an offensive and a defensive team, Coach Mull was still with reserve strength. No time was lost; the team showed its real strength. From that time on it was only a matter of time until the next game. Under heavy pressure, the boys never let up. They worked, and they loved it. This, the 1954 football squad, was the team that was to rank among the "greats" of Lexington Senior High School.

Boy Cagers

This year there were ten lettermen returning from the 1954 season. Coach Presnell Mull began the season with mind-provoking drills on main fundamentals of basketball. Then the boys began to show their gains under the long afternoon practices.

A majority of the boys had previously seen action. Their task then was "practice to make perfect." Two weeks before the game, fifteen boys were selected. The team was optimistically looking ahead for an outstanding season. The material was there, and it was proven.

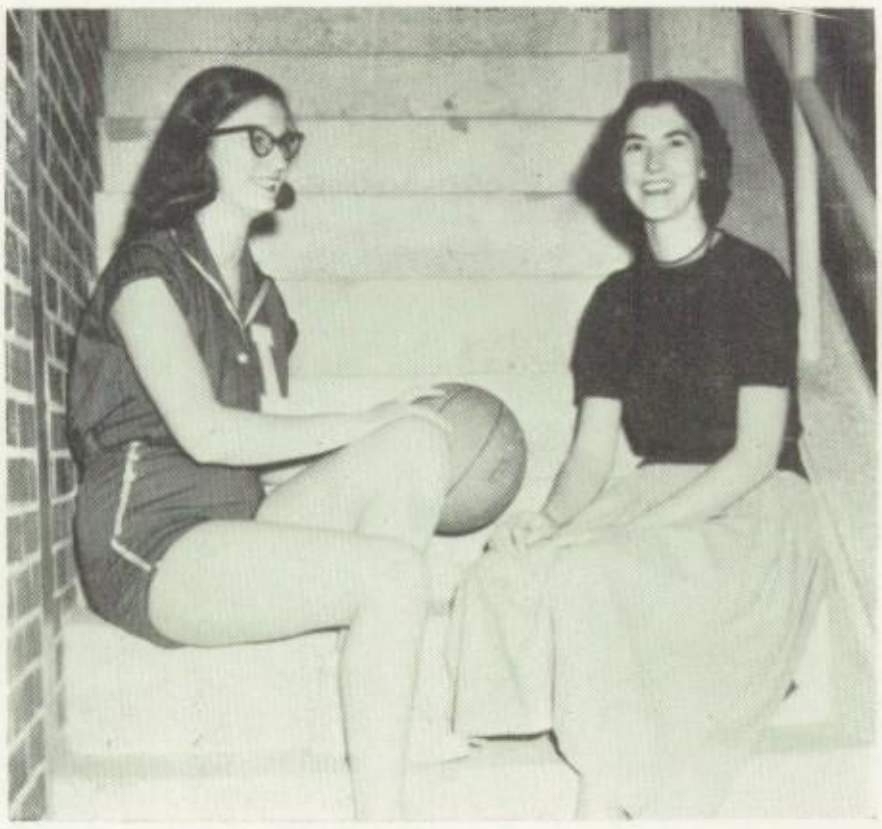
Girl Cagers



Captain Edna Haynes and Coach Mrs. Joyce Price.

Having only three lettermen returning for the 1955 season, Mrs. Joyce Bowie Price began with long and hard practice drills for her girls. She began to see continued progress. All of the girls were excited and eager to make the team. Finally fifteen girls were chosen to represent the girls Lexington Senior High School "Yellow Jacket" team.

The future was looking good. Enthusiasm began to show reward of tireless efforts. Through the darkest periods, the girls showed courage and good sportsmanship. They played hard to win, and victory they produced. This was an outstanding group, an outstanding team; they were leaders.

The Good Ole' Days

From the very first to the very last,
Our year is filled with memories;
Some of them good, and some of them bad,
But all of them held steadfast.

We put these memories before you,
In hopes that they'll be cherished
And remembered. And may they always be
A steppingstone to future happiness, too.

Last Will and Testament

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

DAVIDSON COUNTY

City of Lexington

Lexington Senior High School

We, the Senior Class of 1955, realizing that we cannot take our many possessions with us, hereby bestow them upon those students remaining in the school. Being of sound body and excellent mind, we declare this to be our last will and testament to be executed in the following order:

ARTICLE I. To The Faculty

ITEM I. To our beloved principal, Mr. Wike, we leave a joke book, so that he may compare those cute little quips of his with those of the more famous comedians.

ITEM II. To Miss Manning we leave a first period Trig class that will admire and respect her as much as this year's class does.

ITEM III. To Miss Gilliam we leave Second Year French students who will make 100's on all her tests.

ITEM IV. To Mr. Wagner we leave a band that will attain his highest musical ambition and that will continue to improve as much in the future as it has improved in the past.

ITEM V. To Mrs. Hedrick we leave literary-minded students to whom she may teach all the classics of literature with the greatest of ease.

ITEM VI. To Coach Presnell Mull we leave another championship football team.

ITEM VII. To Mrs. Thompson we leave new "Silent-Riters" for her typing classes, and we know that her students will then follow suite.

ITEM VIII. And to all of the other teachers we fondly leave our respect and admiration for their endeavors to give us a well-rounded education, for their diligence and patience, and for their devotion to their work.

ARTICLE II. To The Classes

ITEM I. To the Seniors of '55-'56 we leave our love for L.S.H.S. and sincere hopes that they will enjoy being "dignified" seniors as much as we have.

ITEM II. To the Juniors we leave the concession stand and all the joys that come with planing the Junior-Senior.

ITEM III. To the Sophomores we leave that wonderful feeling of finally "belonging."

ITEM IV. To the Freshmen we leave all the hardships, work, fun, and honors to be endured and enjoyed during the next four glorious years.

ITEM V. To all the classes we leave a never-dying school spirit and a deep appreciation for the school and its faculty.

ARTICLE III. To The Individuals

ITEM I. Nancy Covington bequeaths her title of Most Attractive upon Martha Clifford.

ITEM II. Edna Haynes wills her good sportsmanship to Marianna Sink, and her athletic ability to Dolores Leonard.

ITEM III. Raye Sechrest leaves her exceptional singing talent to Eddie Allred.

ITEM IV. Tillie Beck leaves her vivaciousness, and Janet Smith, her cuteness, to Kay Musgrave. Tillie also leaves the Lexhipep in the capable hands of the new staff.

ITEM V. Robert Fitzgerald leaves the problems that come with the Prexy's job to next year's president, and we hope that that person can solve them as well as Robert did.

ITEM VI. Keith Stamey leaves his amazing French knowledge to Raymond Byrd.

ITEM VII. Jane Nave and Leonard Beck leave their wit and witticisms to Ann Gallimore and Charles Helmstetler.

ITEM VIII. Curtis Williams leaves his charming ability to "snow" the girls to Moyer Smith and Jakie Lohr.

ITEM IX. Mickey Byrd surrenders his magnificient physique to Freddie Peacock.

ITEM X. Sarah Swicegood leaves her outstanding versatility to Bettie Brinkley.

ITEM XI. Eddie Coble leaves his title of cutest and his everlasting expression of boredom to Tommy Green. He also wills his industriousness in the lab to any future lab assistant who wants it.

ITEM XII. Caroline Swaim wills her grand personality to Martha Walser.

ITEM XIII. Snooky Money leaves her magical keyboard techniques to George Wilson.

ITEM XIV. Joe Sink, Scott Craven, and Bob Stafford leave their genius for arguing with teachers to Jack Childers.

ITEM XV. Levon Weaver leaves his friendliness and sincerity to Skip Stoner, and his growing pills (which don't work) to David Redwine.

ITEM XVI. Angella Foster leaves her willingness to work to Alice McCrary.

ITEM XVII. Eddie Cathell leaves his magnetic personality to Dwight Bumgarner, and his knowledge of Parliamentary Law to next year's Senior Class President.

ITEM XVIII. Mary Mel Farris wills her intellect and efficiency to Nancy Campbell.

ITEM XIX. Page Sink leaves all her originality and creativeness to the Juniors of '55-'56, in the hope that they'll come up with a brilliant idea for the Junior-Senior.

ITEM XX. Jody Foster leaves her inexhaustible energy to Mary Groth, and Mrs. Hedrick hopes that all that extra energy won't cause her to effervesce.

ITEM XXI. "Bird-dog" leaves to Jackie White the now notorious "it," which was left to him by "Coon" Miller and which began ages ago with "Dirty" Everhart.

ITEM XXII. George Elkins wills his good sportsmanship to Lonnie Davis.

ITEM XXIII. Susan Stewart leaves her sweetness and her great typing ability to Eilzabeth Pullen.

ITEM XXIV. With the consent of the Senior Class, Bobby Timberlake has decided to take his hunting gun with him.

We, the aforesaid testators, hereby sign our names and affix our seals to this testimony on this the first day of January in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and fifty-five.

Principal: MR. C. E. WIKE

Finis

To most students the LEXICON depicts recollections of a year. To the LEXICON staff it brings memories of countless hours spent planning, hard work, hoping and waiting, and then rejoicing. The small things that go into the making of an annual often slip by unnoticed. yet they are as important and mean as much as the big things; therefore it is with deep appreciation and gratitude that we give this page to say "thank you" to all who had part in making the 1955 LEXICON a reality.

Especially to our advisers, Miss Charlotte Matthews and Miss Janie Manning, who were so patient, willing, and who have given so much of their time and efforts to aid the staff; and to Mr. Wike, Mrs. Frady, and each faculty member, who were so understanding and co-operative, to say "thank you" is indeed too little. We also wish to express our thanks to Miss Betty Jo Ring for the many useful helps and suggestions which she gave us.

Our literary staff, Angella Foster, Sarah Swicegood, Janet Smith, Nancy Campbell, and George Wilson deserves much praise. Recognition also to Robert Fitzgerald and Dwight Bumgarner for their fine sports section. Our efficient typist was Marilyn Hedrick. Much credit is due Dorcas Penninger for keeping all of our book work in order. Especially to Jimmy Burke, our photographer, we say thanks for a job well done.

To our business staff, Caroline Swaim, Marcia Bell, Raymond Byrd, and Charles Helmstetler we express our deep appreciation for their exceptionally good work. Also to our advertisers we say "thank you" for your support.

We wish to express our appreciation to Mr. William Oliver Smith of Edwards and Broughton for his invaluable ideas and suggestions; also to Mr. T. A. Redmon's Studio for their exceptional photography.

And then, last but not least, to all those wonderful students of Lexington Senior High and all other participants we say, "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

Sincerely,

EDNA AND TOBY
